FREEDOM CONFERENCE GOALS

To cultivate and prepare an environment in which participants are able to experience and receive divine revelation

For each person in attendance to encounter the extravagant love of the Father, the amazing grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the intimate friendship of the Holy Spirit through the power of Jesus

To usher in freedom in Christ, who overcame the devil and set us free from sin and bondage, so we can love others, bear fruit, take our stand against the devil, and enjoy the presence of God every day of our lives
SECTION 1
Preparation
Three ways to prepare for your role in the Freedom Conference:

Stay humble.
A humble heart and a sincere desire to see others experience freedom in Christ are essential when it comes to being an effective member of the Freedom Team.

Commit to unity.
It takes all teams serving together in harmony and selflessness to be the most effective.

“Therefore I, a prisoner for serving the Lord, beg you to lead a life worthy of your calling, for you have been called by God. Always be humble and gentle. Be patient with each other, making allowance for each other's faults because of your love. Make every effort to keep yourselves united in the Spirit, binding yourselves together with peace.” Ephesians 4:1-3

Remember: This is not about you; it is about our King, Jesus, and His heart to bring freedom to those that He loves so much.

Make preparation a priority.
Take time to prepare your heart for what the Lord wants to do in and through you. Study the Word, and remember where your strength comes from. Ask Him to equip you to serve His people well. Be genuine with God, and give Him access to your struggles and desires. Turn to Him when you sin, and choose to have a forgiving heart. Being intentional with your relationship with the Lord will help you come to the conference prepared to minister with a heart that is open and sensitive to the Holy Spirit who will use you to do great things!
Practical ways to prepare:

Fasting

Fasting helps change your focus and is useful in preparing yourself for ministry, especially when engaging in spiritual warfare. You can fast in a variety of ways. The most important part of fasting does not involve what you take away but what you add regarding time spent with the Lord. Ask Him what needs to be done in your heart as you fast.

Tip: Fast before, not at the conference—it is good to go into battle strengthened.

“Is it a fast that I have chosen, a day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head like a bulrush, And to spread out sackcloth and ashes? Would you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD? “Is this not the fast that I have chosen: To loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, to let the oppressed go free, and that you break every yoke?” Isaiah 58:5-6

Consistency in Devotion – Prayer/Word/Worship

The best way to hear God’s voice in public is to learn to hear God’s voice in private. Do everything you can to immerse yourself in prayer, in the Word, and in worship.

Consistency is the key when it comes to prayer for protection and deliverance. We must “dwell” in the secret place to “abide” under the Almighty’s protective shadow.

“He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.” Psalm 91:1, NKJV

Prayer

Prayer readies your heart for battle and helps you hear and know God’s voice. In 1 Thessalonians 5:17, the Bible says to “pray without ceasing.” Live a lifestyle of prayer. Never underestimate the power of God working through heartfelt prayers; they release the power of God and change reality.

“The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.” James 5:16
The Word is the Sword of the Spirit, and it is instrumental in seeing the works of darkness destroyed. As you study, ask the Lord to write the scriptures on your heart and get ready to be amazed by the way God uses those scriptures as you minister to participants.

“It is the same with my word. I send it out, and it always produces fruit. It will accomplish all I want it to, and it will prosper everywhere I send it.” Isaiah 55:11

“For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.” Hebrews 4:12

“All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.” 2 Timothy 3:16-17

Worship
God is worthy of praise, so even when you do not feel like praising, choosing to glorify Him changes things in your heart and mind. Worship changes our earthly perspective, connects us to the heart of God, and becomes a powerful weapon of warfare.

“Let everything that has breath praise the Lord.” Psalm 150:6

“Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand, to execute vengeance.” Psalm 149:6-7
SECTION 2

Host Team
The Host Team serves both participants and team members, and is instrumental in creating a welcoming and comfortable atmosphere. Although the Host Team will be assigned to sections and will have specific responsibilities, the main objective is to ensure that ministry time is efficient and effective.

Functions of the Host Team
The Host Team serves in three main functions to provide a structured and inviting atmosphere in the auditorium:

1. Greeter/Directional Host
The Host Team greets and welcomes participants inside the auditorium. They serve as ushers and assist participants in finding seats.

2. Ministry Supply
The Host Team is responsible for distributing and collecting the supplies needed for participants and team members during the conference. The team ensures that the ministry supply tables are stocked and in excellent order for fellow team members throughout the conference.

3. Ministry Time
Host Team members are positioned inside the auditorium at the front and back of each open aisle. During the ministry time, they release each row of participants to the Prayer Team members when they raise their hands.
Important Tasks of the Host Team

Greeting the Participants

The Host Team is stationed in the auditorium before the participants arrive to welcome them and assist them in finding seats. Participants will continue to arrive during the first 30 minutes of the conference—watch for them during worship and help them find seats. Ensure that no seats are saved prior to the time that auditorium doors are opened. Participants arrive early, and the Host Team will ensure that they are able to find seats.

On Saturday morning, the Host Team is stationed inside the auditorium to help instruct women to sit stage right and men to sit stage left. This separation allows for personal space during the sensitive teachings.

Ministry Times

- The Host Team will have designated seating. The speaker will say, “Will the teams take their places?” This is the cue for all teams to be in place.

- When the ministry time starts, release enough rows to cover the Prayer Team. Then, have only 10-15 people waiting in the aisle.

- Prayer Team members will raise their hand when they are ready for a participant. Be ready to send participants quickly and kindly. Females pray with females, males with males, no exceptions.

- With the people waiting, form two lines, one for men and one for women. This will help to easily send participants to Prayer Team members as they are available.

- Please be mindful of the participants’ level of comfort with physical touch as you guide participants to prayer and as they wait for prayer.
Hand signals are used to identify Prayer Team availability.

- Open hand - female Prayer Team member available;
- Closed hand - male Prayer Team member available; the other hand is used to signal the number available.

If a participant is sent to a Prayer Team member, but another participant arrives first, stay with the waiting participant and help them find another Prayer Team member quickly.

- Please keep conversations to a minimum, and ensure that any conversations are focused on the conference.

Flow of Traffic
Participants will cross the bloodline for ministry time. After receiving prayer, they will move along the outside of the rows, and back up the aisles to their seat. This will keep them from interfering with the people standing in the aisle waiting to receive prayer.

Role of Captains
Captains are available for prayer support during ministry time. Please be aware of any Prayer Team member that may need assistance during ministry time and send a captain their way.

Communion
The Host Team will prepare, distribute, and collect communion elements for participants and team members.

Sensitive Teachings
(Purity, Healing from Abuse, Shame)
It is wise to consider emotions during these teaching times as a part of the deliverance process. Allow the participants to experience these emotions without interference. Make sure tissues are available in each section before the teaching starts. Unless there is a disturbance, allow the Holy Spirit to move during these times. Host Team members should have tissues available for participants as they move to and from prayer.

Clean Up
The Host Team will remain at the close of the conference to reset and cleanup the auditorium. Your Team Leader will communicate specific details.
Intercessor Team
This team wears white, a sign of purity, victory, and righteousness through Christ. They lead the battle and provide a prayer covering over the room. They keep the enemy at bay and act as watchmen, worshippers, and builders, creating an atmosphere in which the power of God can be released. Intercessors focus on the big picture: Freedom. They rely on the Holy Spirit to point them toward specific areas or groups of people or even other teams who may need intercession (for things like fatigue, fear, or focus), and they discern where and how to focus their prayers.

As an intercessor, it is an incredible honor to be able to support the ministry with an attitude of grace and honor. The Intercessor Team provides the spiritual covering that makes the way smooth for freedom and deliverance to find those long held by the enemy.

Two Ways to Intercede

- Worshippers – Create an open Heaven.
- Warriors – Bind the enemy’s attempts to oppose freedom.

The Role of the Holy Spirit
Over the course of the conference intercessors will intercede both as a warrior and as a worshipper by following the Holy Spirit’s promptings. Our goal is that at any given moment some intercessors will be confronting the enemy and others will be in communion with God.

Whether praying as a worshipper or as a warrior, intercessors use the Word as their guide. Intercessors pray the Word, knowing that God assures us that “it will not return void.”
for us through His blood and that His grace is capable of wiping away all of the issues of our past! Worship and connect with the Lord and be conduits of His presence. Focus on His attributes. Enthrone Him with praise. This is the heart of worship.

True worship paves the way for His glory. In the Bible, where there was true Spirit worship, the manifest Presence of God came into that place.

When Solomon finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and the glory of the Lord filled the temple. The priests could not enter the temple of the Lord because the glory of the Lord filled it. When all the Israelites saw the fire coming down and the glory of the Lord above the temple, they knelt on the pavement with their faces to the ground, and they worshipped and gave thanks to the Lord saying, “He is good; his love endures forever.” 2 Chronicles 7:1-3

It is always a good idea to pray through scriptures when worshipping. Refer to the scriptures in the Ministry Team Resources section as you intercede as a worshipper.
Prayer is not just conversation with God – it is also confrontation with the enemy. God designed prayer to be strategic and to have a purpose. The ultimate goal of spiritual warfare is for souls to be saved, bondages to be broken, and the glory of the Lord to fill the earth.

Three mighty weapons of authority we use in warfare prayer are: the name of Jesus, the blood of Jesus and the Word of God.

The name of Jesus has power. It is above every other name. The name of Jesus is above cancer, diabetes, depression, and every evil force in the world.

The blood of Jesus that was shed on the cross was the ultimate defeat for the enemy. When in warfare we must remember that His blood allows us to fight from a position of victory! Most of the Armor of God is defensive – it protects us.

The Word of God (or Sword of the Spirit) is the offensive weapon in the armor of God and the one we need whenever we go into warfare. Warfare prayer involves knowing the Word, confessing the Word, and using the Word just as Jesus did when He was confronted.

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes. For our struggle is not against flesh and blood but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that you can stand against the schemes of the devil.

_Ephesians 6:10-13_
Prayer Team
The role of the Prayer Team is to listen to the Holy Spirit, love people to wholeness, and to be bold in the face of the enemy. God wants to extend freedom and healing to each person who comes forward to receive prayer, and this team becomes a voice for the message of victory. The Prayer Team wears red, which represents the power of the blood of Jesus!

How to be an Effective Prayer Team Member:

Walk in your authority.
Authority in Christ is the basis of the ministry of the Prayer Team. When Jesus commissioned His disciples in Matthew 10:1, “He gave them power over unclean spirits to cast them out.”

“Greater is He that is in me than he that is in the world.”
1 John 4:4

“I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you.” Luke 10:19

Expect resistance.
Be ready for some attacks, and stand against the enemy’s tactics with God’s truth. Recognize the lies of the enemy, reject the lies, and replace them with God’s Word. Use your spiritual authority in the name of Jesus to intercede as you pray for others. You have authority to declare that Jesus has overcome the forces of darkness.

Engage in warfare prayer.
This conference is focused on freedom, which does involve spiritual warfare. You are called, chosen, and equipped to pray for all areas of sin and bondage. Do not fear, Jesus has the victory. You are simply partnering with the Savior.
Here are a few tips to remember as you engage in warfare prayers:

- Pray like Jesus. Model your prayers after the way Jesus addressed demonic powers. Jesus didn't say, “Oh Father, set this person free.” He spoke directly to the spirits: “Spirit, come out! Loose this person, and let him go. Be gone, go!” This is a direct command to the spirits.

- Manifestations lead to victory. Should a person have a demonic manifestation, it is not the time to become intimidated or fearful. The Presence of the Lord and the power of His Word force the enemy out of hiding. If you are not sure if it is the working of a spirit or something in their flesh, take a moment to ask the Holy Spirit: “Lord, help me discern and understand what is happening here.” Motion to a captain to come alongside you as you minister.
1. Interview
   Engage the participant by asking, “Did the teaching bring anything to mind that we can pray about together?” Stay on topic in that moment, listen to the participant and let the Holy Spirit reveal how you can pray and help set the participant free.

   The goal here is to identify what needs to be prayed for, not to counsel. Feel comfortable saying “God knows the details,” so that you can help direct participants back to the prayer moment.

2. Repent
   Identify the participant’s role in his or her own bondage. This may mean they need to confess something, forgive someone, or repent from an old way of thinking.

   Confess
   Based on the interview, encourage the person to confess their sin if needed. Confession brings both healing and forgiveness. You may lead them in a prayer of repentance to help keep the prayer time focused.

   “Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed.” James 5:16

   Forgive
   You may need to ask the person you are praying for if there is anyone he or she needs to forgive. There is power in speaking the name of the person who needs to be forgiven, so you might encourage the participants to speak the name of the person they need to forgive. Sometimes a person may have unforgiveness towards God because of a perceived wrong or injustice. Other times, they may need to receive God’s forgiveness for themselves. To forgive is to release, loose, dismiss, and... completely cancel the debt. It is a choice, not a feeling. It can be difficult, especially in areas where deep hurts and wounds exist.

Steps to Forgive:
1. Identify those you need to forgive.
2. Forgive the person who offended or hurt you or participated in introducing you to this spirit.
3. Forgive God and receive His forgiveness.
4. Release and bless the person(s) originally identified.

Repent
Pray with the participant to turn away from the sin or spirit and turn toward the truth in God’s Word. Often, people think that simply confessing sin clears their conscience and frees them from any consequence or responsibility. Confession is admitting a sin. Repentance is setting our minds on the cross and away from the sin. If needed, lead the person in a prayer of repentance.

3. Renounce
Identify the enemy’s role in a participant’s bondage. We speak directly to the enemy and renounce any influence of the enemy, rebuke that spirit by name, and break any strongholds.

Rebuke the Spirit
When you rebuke the spirit, take authority and speak with boldness. Demand (without raising your voice) that the spirit let them go in the name of Jesus. Partner with them and cast the spirit out, just like Jesus did in Mark 9:25, “When Jesus saw that a crowd was running to the scene, He rebuked the evil spirit. ‘You deaf and mute spirit,’ Jesus said, ‘I command you, come out of him and never enter him again.’”

Break
Tell the participant that you are going to anoint them with oil. Then apply the oil and break the yoke of bondage based on the blood and the name of Jesus.

“It shall come to pass in that day, that his burden will be taken away from your shoulder, and his yoke from your neck, and the yoke will be destroyed because of the anointing oil.” Isaiah 10:27
Bless and Fill

In this final part of the prayer model, we celebrate that the participant is set on a new path of freedom in this area. We speak blessings over them and celebrate their future as a free person. Use this time to speak the Word and life over them.

Bless

Bless them with the opposite of what you cast out. If it was anger, fill them with peace. If it was rejection, pray for acceptance of God’s love and the love of others in their life.

Fill

Be sure to end each prayer time with a prayer to fill up the places that were just emptied of the enemy's influence. The Word of God can be used in a mighty way here. Speak scriptures over the participant that directly speak truth to the lie just dealt with in the teaching and ministry time. Invite the Holy Spirit to bless the participant abundantly. Look at it this way, the Holy Spirit has just taken ground from the enemy, and we are inviting Him to take His rightful place in that territory.

Rejoice

Before the participant leaves, thank the Lord with them for freedom and the future He has given them. Give all the glory and focus to the Lord for what He has done!
1. Request the Gift.
Ask the participant the following two questions: Are you ready to receive the Baptism of the Holy Spirit? Are you ready to release your prayer language? Encourage them that the Holy Spirit would never force Himself on them but will always honor a request.

2. Receive the Gift.
A gift given doesn’t necessarily mean a gift is received. It’s important that the participant receives the fullness of the Holy Spirit in faith. It’s their job to put their faith into action through reaching out to receive what they’ve requested.

3. Release the Gift.
If the participant has asked to receive their prayer language, encourage them by faith to follow the Spirit’s urging, stop praying in English, and let their prayer language flow.

Reassure them that if they receive the gift in faith, God is faithful and their prayer language will follow. Encourage them that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is so much greater than just a prayer language. It is a supernatural love for God, for people, and for the Word. It is wisdom, knowledge, and other gifts as well. Bless them and encourage them so that they can walk away knowing that God’s best belongs to them.
Things to remember:

1. Avoid praying in your prayer language over them in a way that can be distracting. Use discernment in this situation.
2. Avoid telling them words to say.
3. Represent the Holy Spirit well. He doesn’t make participants uncomfortable and neither should we.
4. Celebrate with them no matter the outcome.

If they don’t receive their prayer language in that moment, encourage them that God gives to His children what they request. He is faithful and has filled them with His Holy Spirit. Most people will continue to experience more and more of the manifestation of the Holy Spirit as they walk in new levels of faith and freedom.

Helpful Tips for Prayer Team Members:

Be Yourself. Remember that you are called to do this! Walk in the authority that you have inherited. Listen to the Holy Spirit. Don’t compare yourself to others. Some prayer encounters may take longer than others, and the length of a prayer is not the measure of success.

Use the participant’s name. When you speak to and pray for a participant, use their name – it communicates value.

Watch your volume. Be aware of the volume of your voice so the ministry time remains personal and private.

Keep your eyes open. It’s important to practice praying with your eyes open before the conference so that you are comfortable praying with your spirit and seeing with your natural eyes at the same time. Be aware of the participant’s response to prayer. Watch for signs like tears, fatigue, or warfare. Notice facial expressions, stiffening up, clinched fists, and lips tightening, so you can react appropriately.
Position yourself for ministry. We want to be sure that boundaries are set so that everyone feels comfortable. Men pray with men, and women pray with women. Stand a bit to the side of the participants as you pray for them. You might place your hand on the participant's shoulder or ask if you can hold their hands while you pray. It is important to only touch them on their hands or shoulders to maintain integrity and participant comfort. You may hug them at the end of the prayer, but be sensitive to the participant and refrain from forcing a hug.

Be Mindful of Hygiene. You will be praying in close proximity to participants, so be mindful of breath, and keep any fragrances simple and light so they are not a distraction.

Anointing with Oil. Keep in mind that oil is symbolic, and though it is scripturally significant, the power is in Jesus. Be mindful that this may be new to some participants, so be sure to get their consent. Remember that you only need to use a small amount of oil on the tip of your finger to apply to the participant's forehead as you pray. Please use the unscented oil that is provided.

Engage their will. While you're praying for your participant, encourage them to agree in what is about to take place. For some, this may look like opening their hands or turning their hands over to release the burden and receive the blessing. Use the word “we” instead of “I” during prayer. For instance, “We come against the spirit of fear in the name of Jesus.” A participant may want to pray while you pray, but encourage them to listen and receive.

Stay on topic. It is important for everyone to pray against the same spirit at the same time for a unified force of victory. If a participant asks you to pray about a different area, kindly say that this time is dedicated to a certain topic and assure them that there will be a time to pray for other areas of need. You may have a participant who says they do not need prayer for the specified area, so bless them as the Spirit leads.

Declaration

I declare and proclaim this is my day to lay down my life.

I am of God and the devil has nothing in me. I will not serve two masters. It’s no longer I that live, but Christ lives in me. If my Heavenly Father feeds the birds, He'll take care of me. If He clothes the lilies, He’ll provide for me. If I seek His kingdom, and His righteousness, all these things will be added to me.

I have done nothing – absolutely nothing – to earn my salvation. Jesus, you paid the price for me to live and be free. God, burn away my pride; consume my sin. God resists the proud, so I resist pride. I renounce all greed, selfishness and selfish ambition, all boasting and envy.

Lord, purify my motives and my heart. By God’s command I am blessed. I am blessed in the city. I am blessed in the country. My children are blessed. My relationships are blessed. I am blessed when I come in. I am blessed when I go out. I am the head and not the tail. Everything I put my hand to is blessed.

I embrace humility and put it on like a garment. God’s power is made perfect in my weakness. I humble myself under God’s mighty hand. I empty myself now. I am a slave to God and a servant to people. Father, in the name of Jesus, take my life! Amen!
God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble. James 4:6

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast. Ephesians 2:8-9

Jesus told him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me” John 14:6

But he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness.” 2 Corinthians 12:9

Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, along with everyone in your household. Acts 16:31

Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up. James 4:10

For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Matthew 16:26

For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. 1 Timothy 6:10

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Matthew 6:21

Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the best part of everything you produce. Then he will fill your barns with grain, and your vats will overflow with good wine. Proverbs 3:9-10

But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:19
Declaration

I am blessed with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places.
If God is for me, who can be against me? I am chosen by God. He has not rejected me! God loves me so much that He gave His only Son for me.

He chose me and appointed me to bear good fruit.

God contends with those who contend with me.

Spirits of rejection come at me in one direction, but flee in seven!

I am holy and blameless. I am redeemed through the blood of Jesus.

I have the spirit of wisdom and revelation. I am an heir of heaven.

I am seated in heavenly places. I am God’s workmanship. I am fearfully and wonderfully made. I am a new creation. I am a citizen of heaven. I am rooted and grounded in love. I am more than a conqueror. I am an overcomer. I am healed. I am free!

Lord, everything You say about me is true! Amen.
God loves you dearly, and he has called you to be his very own people. Romans 1:7

I took you from the ends of the earth, from its farthest corners I called you. I said, 'You are my servant'; I have chosen you and have not rejected you. Isaiah 41:9

If God is for us, who can be against us? Romans 8:31

You didn’t choose me. I chose you. I appointed you to go and produce lasting fruit, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask for, using my name. John 15:16

“For I know the plans I have for you,” says the LORD. “They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. In those days when you pray, I will listen.” Jeremiah 29:11-12

Even before he made the world, God loved us and chose us in Christ to be holy and without fault in his eyes. Ephesians 1:4

Furthermore, because we are united with Christ, we have received an inheritance from God, for he chose us in advance, and he makes everything work out according to his plan. Ephesians 1:11

I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. Psalm 139:14

God raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms in Christ Jesus. Ephesians 2:6

Even if my father and mother abandon me, the LORD will hold me close. Psalm 27:10

Declaration

I have been crucified with Christ. I no longer gratify the cravings of my old sinful nature. My body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. My body may be weak, but my spirit is willing.

I am never tempted beyond what I can bear—God always provides the way out. I flee youthful lusts. I resist the devil, and he must flee from me. I have the mind of Christ. I will set before my eyes no vile thing. I take captive every thought.

My thoughts are true, noble, right, and pure. I am sober and alert, ready for any attack. My God arms me with strength and makes my way perfect. He who is in me is greater than he who is in the world. When evil comes, I will stand my ground. I am a new creation—no more condemnation.

Christ has set me free! And by His blood, my hands are clean, my conscience is clear, and my heart is pure. And the pure in heart will see His face. Lord, I want to see your face! I have only one desire: Your presence in my life. Show me Your glory! Amen.
Let us draw near to God with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. Hebrews 10:22

For we know that our old self was crucified with Him so that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin. Romans 6:6

But he who unites himself with the Lord is one with Him in spirit. 1 Corinthians 6:17

I urge you, as aliens and strangers in the world, to abstain from sinful desires, which war against your soul. 1 Peter 2:11

Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. Ephesians 6:13

For God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body. 1 Corinthians 6:20

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Matthew 5:8

Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me. Psalm 51:10

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come! 2 Corinthians 5:17
Declaration

God chose me before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight. Jesus Christ, the Righteous One, has redeemed me. The blood of Jesus washes away my sin. The blood of Jesus purifies my heart. The blood of Jesus cleanses my conscience. The blood of Jesus gives me a fresh start. God lifted me out of a slimy pit, out of the mud and mire, and placed me on a rock. I am forgiven—He remembers my sin no more. I am forgiven—He blots out my transgression. As far as the east is from the west are my sins from me. As high as the heavens are above the earth: so great is His love for me. I no longer condemn myself, and neither does God condemn me. I silence the accuser now! Satan is the father of lies. By the power of the blood—I tear down the veil of shame. Lord, take these worthless fig leaves, and clothe me in Your righteousness. I run from darkness to light. My face is radiant and unashamed. Instead of shame, I will receive double honor. I will never be put to shame again. Whom the Son sets free is free indeed! Amen.
Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory. 2 Corinthians 3:17-18

Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the Word. Ephesians 5:25-26

Let us draw near to God with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Hebrews 10:22

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9

For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more. Hebrews 8:12

As far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us. Psalm 103:12

Those who trust in me will never be put to shame. Isaiah 49:23b

Those who look to him for help will be radiant with joy; no shadow of shame will darken their faces. Psalm 34:5

Though they stumble, they will not fall, for the LORD holds them up with his hand. Isaiah 49:23a

Instead of your shame you shall have double honor. Isaiah 61:7

Declaration
God knows me and loves me. His Spirit is near to me. He hems me in and protects me, and heals my broken heart. Today I receive my healing. What the devil meant for evil, God will turn for good. I have authority to overcome all the power of satan. People may have hurt me, but I am not a victim. I release all who have hurt me in any way. I command a blessing on all my enemies. I entrust them now to the Righteous Judge. I choose to forget the past and leave it behind. I pull up all bitter roots and throw them in the fire! Christ has redeemed me from the curse of abuse. I renounce all anger, resentment, and hatred. I break any generational curse of abuse off my life. Lord, cleanse my hands of all abuse. Make my hands reach out in blessing to lift others up. Lord, cleanse my mouth of all hurtful words. Let these lips speak words of healing, encouragement, and blessing. Lord, cleanse my eyes of all looks of hatefulness and intimidation. Let
The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is upon me, for the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to comfort the brokenhearted and to proclaim that captives will be released and prisoners will be freed. Isaiah 61:1

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. Psalm 147:3

He is near to those who have a broken heart and saves those who are crushed in spirit. Psalm 34:18-19

But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize for which God has called me heavenward in Christ Jesus. Philippians 3:13-14

But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you. Matthew 5:44

You ought to forgive and comfort him, so that he will not be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow. 2 Corinthians 2:7

Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing.” Luke 23:34

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. Ephesians 4:32
Declaration

I am a member of the body of Christ and satan has no power over me, for I have overcome evil with good. I am of God and have overcome satan, for greater is He who’s in me than he who’s in the world. I will fear no evil for God is with me. His Word and His Spirit, they comfort me.

I am far from oppression, and fear does not come near me. No weapon formed against me will prosper. I will not be afraid of the terrors of the night, nor fear the dangers of the day. The Lord is on my side. I will not fear. What can man do to me? My righteousness is of the Lord, and whatever I do will prosper, for I am like a tree planted by the rivers of water.

I am delivered from the evil of this present world, for this is God’s will for me. No evil will befall me! Neither will any plague come near me, for the Lord has given His angels charge over me. They keep me in all my ways. I take the shield of faith and quench every fiery dart that the wicked one brings against me. Christ has redeemed me from the curse of the law in the name of Jesus. I am an overcomer, and I overcome by the blood of the Lamb and the word of my testimony. I am submitted to God, and the devil flees from me. The Word of God is forever settled in heaven; therefore, I will establish His word on earth. Fear, you must go now! I am made perfect in love. I am a person of faith. Amen.
For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind. 2 Timothy 1:7

There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love. 1 John 4:18

Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go. Joshua 1:9

Though an army besiege me, my heart will not fear; though war break out against me, even then will I be confident. Psalm 27:3

The name of the LORD is a strong tower; the righteous run to it and are safe. Behold, God is my salvation, I will trust and not be afraid. Proverbs 18:10

Declaration

I prophesy to myself – Dry bones, hear the word of the Lord: I will live and not die! I will declare His mighty works.

God is my refuge. He is my deliverer. His mercies are new every day. His joy is my strength. His wings are my shelter.

He heals my broken heart. He restores my soul.

What I have sown in tears, I’ll reap in joy. What the devil meant for evil, God turns for good. Jesus, I run to You. I trade this heavy yoke for joy unspeakable. I trade every burden for peace like a river.

I have the mind of Christ. I am complete, and lacking nothing. I am rooted and established in God’s love. How wide, how long, how high, how deep is His love for me! I wear a crown of beauty, instead of ashes; the oil of gladness, instead of mourning; the garment of praise, instead of despair. I’m alive! I take off the grave clothes and come forth. Amen.
Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus. Philippians 1:6

Yet this I call to mind and therefore I have hope: Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for His compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness. Lamentations 3:21-23

And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:7

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. Isaiah 41:10

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds. Psalm 147:3

He is near to those who have a broken heart and saves those who are crushed in spirit. Psalm 34:18-19

Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. Psalm 126:5

You have made known to me the ways of life; You will make me full of joy in Your presence. Acts 2:28
You know of Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and how He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with Him. Acts 10:38, NASB

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. Acts 2:1-2

They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them. Acts 2:3-5

He [Jesus] will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. Matthew 3:11

This is what was spoken by the prophet Joel, “In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.” Acts 2:14-18

“As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came on them as he had come on us at the beginning. Then I remembered what the Lord had said: ‘John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.’ So if God gave them the same gift as he gave us, who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to think that I could oppose God?” Acts 11:15-17 because our gospel came to you not simply with words, but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and with deep conviction.
1 Thessalonians 1:4-5

I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. John 14:12

And if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit, who lives in you.
Romans 8:11
