YOUNG COMMUNICATORS SUNDAY

Discussion Guide

BIG IDEA

Four young communicators brought us messages of how to win in the waiting. Nia Henley, Lifepoint student, reminded us that we have access to the power of God, and we exercise that authority by speaking the Word of God over our circumstances. When we face opposition, our focus determines which way we will go. Dakari Rollins, KidsPoint Director, showed us how Caleb and Joshua focused on the promise of God and received their blessing. Maribeth Combs, Lifepoint College graduate, expressed the importance of crying out to God about our losses. It is in our moments of honest sorrow with God that we feel closest to Him. None of us were prepared for the changes in our lives recently. Gerald Hackett, King George Campus Director, encouraged us to have a “push” in our spirit. Our sufferings can produce endurance, preparing us for the next battle.

TALK IT OVER

Choose questions that keep the discussion moving. No need to discuss every question.

- What thoughts have been bullying you that you need to take authority over?
- How do I usually respond to loss?
- What things have closed to you in this season? What can we focus on instead of our problems?
- What can you do to put a “push” in your spirit?
- What promises of God are you focusing on in the waiting?

APPLICATION IDEAS

- Commit to memorizing verses that you can speak into your situations.

PRAYER FOCUS

At Lifepoint, we pray until something happens. Make time in every group meeting to pray for one another and the larger matters of concern to your group.

- Pray for each other to cling to Jesus as the anchor for your soul.

LEADER TIPS

- Try to reach out individually to each group member throughout the week. Be willing to have the hard conversations and hear the hurts of their hearts and pray with them.
