FUEL FOR THE FIGHT
Discussion Guide

BIG IDEA
Have you ever felt unprepared for the blows and hits of life and feel trapped in a fight you didn't expect? In today's sermon, Spotsylvania Campus Worship Director, Berchman Paul, encourages us to fuel up properly for the fight.

SCRIPTURES USED IN THE MESSAGE
- Isaiah 41:8-10
- John 10:10
- Deuteronomy 31:6
- 1 Corinthians 6:19-20
- Proverbs 18:24
- Psalm 139:7-11
- Psalm 23:5 (KJV)
- 2 Corinthians 12:9

TALK IT OVER
Choose questions that keep the discussion moving. No need to discuss every question.
- How do you respond when you feel like you're getting hit with the punches of life? In what areas of your life do you feel like you're getting hit so much you want to quit?
- Where or what is your "even there" place or situation that you've not turned over to God or recognized His presence in the middle of it? (Psalm 139:10)
- What are some things you can do to remind yourself that you are not your own and that you belong to Jesus?
- What are some ways your mind keeps you from pursuing what God called you to do? How do you renew your mind so your life is transformed and aligned with God's will?

APPLICATION IDEAS
- Describe a time when you walked away from the Sunday service with a determination to apply what you learned and then didn't follow through. Why did it happen? What could you have done to ensure you followed through? What can you do to make applying the Sunday sermons a regular part of your routine?

PRAYER FOCUS
At Lifepoint, we pray until something happens. Make time in every group meeting to pray for one another and the larger matters of concern to your group.
- We are fueled by God's strength. Pray for specific situations and ask for the wisdom to lean on God's strength and not your own this week.

LEADER TIPS
- Discuss the importance of confidentiality with your members and remind them frequently. What's said in the group stays in the group. People won't be vulnerable if they don't feel safe revealing sensitive issues to the group.
